

Parliamentary Contributory Pension Fund

Death benefit nomination form

(contributing members under age 75)

5

If you die before the age of 75 whilst contributing to the Fund (or having ceased paying contributions due to your PCPF pension having reached the 2/3rds limit), a lump sum benefit is payable at the discretion of the Trustees. The lump sum is generally not subject to income or inheritance tax, but please refer to the section headed Lifetime Allowance in the Members' E-Booklet – MPs' Section.

Please note: if you are proposing that your lump sum benefit be shared, the total percentage of benefit must equal 100%.
